

Kiss the Sky

Maren Morris

The could be the same place you

There might be bumps, there might be bruises, but

Time will slip on by if

And, they weren't made for walkin'

Oh,

But safe only gets you so far

What if you look your fears right in the eye

.....?

You can find the piece of you that you've been hidin'

.....?

What if you chase your heart out to the edge

.....?

..... (hey)

And it finally feels a little like you're flyin',

.....?

Oh, my darlin',

..... like a spark that starts a fire

in your mind (ah)

But if you always keep

'em locked up inside (ooh-oh)

..... if you're stuck here livin' life
with too much caution (oh)

So and get every single thing you've ever wanted (mm)

Oh, it's safe where you are

..... (oh) right in the eye

Say you'll see them another time?

What if, for once

..... that you've been hidin', you've been hidin'?

What if you

Rewrite your stars and be brave instead?

What if you jump (hey)

And, like you're flyin'?

Oh, my darlin', if you try

You just might kiss the sky

you just might kiss the sky

(Oh)

(Oh) ooh, you just might kiss the sky

(Oh)

(Oh)

(Oh) oh

(Oh) I just might kiss the sky

Oh, yeah, yeah

Mm-mm
