Forming Questions

A Complete the conversations with two words in each space.

1

A: I saw another group of hikers walking through your garden this morning, Mrs Patel.

B: Really? _____? I'd like to know who _____. Then I'd call the police and give them their names. My garden is private property, you know.

A: Yes, I know. It must be really annoying.

2

A: I've just put up a shelf on the wall.

B: Really. Who _____?

A: Nobody helped me! Why _____ think I needed help?!

3

A: I just eat them raw – like this.

B: No way! _____ cook them?

A: No … watch.

B: Uggh. That's disgusting!

4

A: Could you tell me where _____ on this map?

B: You're here. Not far from the train station.

5

A: Hey, Marta. You speak French, _____?

B: Yes. A bit. Why _____ ask?

A: Well, I've got a French guy on the phone and he doesn't speak much English. Could you help me?

6

A: Sara left the meeting early again.

B: I know. Do you think _____ a headache? She tends to have really bad headaches.

A: _____? I didn't know that. Yes. Perhaps that was why.
