

Add ONE word in each sentence

1. I will make up.....the missed meeting by sending you my notes.
2. She is always the ball when it comes to organizing events.
3. It's important to stick the plan if we want to finish on time.
4. The manager will set the for the project next week.
5. There are major problems with the new software update.
6. We need to actions to improve our customer service.
7. Can youfor an update on the project status tomorrow?
8. The final cost was wayour initial budget, which is great news.
9. I will report our progress at the next team meeting.
10. This email is just a follow-.....to check if you received my last message.
11. The company coveredthe costs of the employee training program.
12. I will bend backwards to make sure the secret won't be revealed.
13. Please bring me to speed on what happened during my absence.
14. The team aimed finish the assignment before the weekend.