

1. What reasons does William Wilson give for not revealing his real name?
 - A) He is afraid of being recognized.
 - B) His real name is known and hated due to his evil life.
 - C) He wants to protect his family.
 - D) He believes it is unnecessary.
2. How does William Wilson describe the change in his character over time?
 - A) He gradually became a better person.
 - B) He experienced a sudden tendency to evil intentions.
 - C) He was always dishonest.
 - D) He became more controlled and disciplined.
3. What event does William Wilson attribute his terrible condition to?
 - A) A specific crime he committed.
 - B) A chance event that changed his life.
 - C) The influence of his friends.
 - D) The expectations of his family.
4. What feelings does William Wilson express about his current state?
 - A) He feels proud of his accomplishments.
 - B) He is indifferent to the opinions of others.
 - C) He seeks sympathy and perhaps pity from others.
 - D) He believes he is beyond redemption.
5. How does William Wilson relate his character traits to his family's history?
 - A) He claims to be the only one with these traits.
 - B) He states that his family has always produced men with strong imagination and uncontrolled emotion.
 - C) He believes that his parents were highly disciplined.
 - D) He feels his family had no influence on his behavior.