

1. What was the character of Glendinning as described in the text?
  - a) Strong and confident
  - b) Weak and easily manipulated
  - c) Wealthy and generous
  - d) Honest and trustworthy
2. How did the narrator initially manipulate Glendinning into playing cards?
  - a) By offering him a large amount of money
  - b) By suggesting they play in front of their friends
  - c) By letting him win a few games
  - d) By cheating openly during the game
3. What effect did alcohol have on Glendinning during the card game?
  - a) It made him more alert
  - b) It caused him to lose track of his debts
  - c) It had no effect on him
  - d) It improved his card-playing skills
4. How did the narrator feel when he realized the extent of Glendinning's losses?
  - a) Indifferent
  - b) Joyful
  - c) Guilt-ridden
  - d) Proud
5. What was the reaction of the other young men in the room after Glendinning's loss?
  - a) They laughed at Glendinning
  - b) They showed sympathy towards him
  - c) They praised the narrator for his skills
  - d) They left the room immediately