

Phrasal verbs with IN / INTO

Complete the sentences with the correct verb.

LOOK

FILL

GROW

CHECK

LET

TALK

BURST

RUSH

1. Could you _____ in this form, please?
2. You must _____ in at least one hour before the take-off.
3. He's against the idea but I think I can _____ him into it.
4. When she heard the terrible news, she _____ into tears.
5. This jacket is a bit too big for you now but you will _____ into it.
6. Take your time. You should never _____ into important decisions.
7. It's raining heavily and I'm soaked through. Open the door, please, and _____ me in.
8. We would like to _____ into the possibility of merging the two departments.

Match the phrasal verbs and their definitions

- |                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| 1. to run into sbd  | A to quickly put on a piece of clothing |
| 2. to slip into sth | B to become involved                    |
| 3. to chime in      | C to meet someone unexpectedly          |
| 4. to step in       | D to succeed in entering a place        |
| 5. to get in        | E to interrupt a conversation           |

Phrasal verbs with IN

Complete each of the groups of sentences with one of the following verbs. Use each verb once only.

break in bring in

call in come in

fill in get in put in take in

- |    |  |  |  |
|----|--|--|--|
| 1. | What time does sheThe team mustWe must                           |  | from work?some more practice.all that washing before it rains.                             |
| 2. | I'llI'm afraid we need toThe company has had to                  |  | and see her on the way home.an expert.all the cars to check them.                          |
| 3. | We expect the jury toThe police decided toThis job can           |  | a verdict of "not guilty".all the suspects.over six hundred pounds a week.                 |
| 4. | The thieves tried toExcuse me, can II'm sorry to                 |  | and steal the jewels.here and make a suggestion?but there's an important call on the line. |
| 5. | It was difficult toThe conman managed toNow I'm slimmer, I must  |  | everything she said.almost everybody.these trousers.                                       |
| 6. | They'veIt's warmer since weSome employees                        |  | a request for more equipment.central heating.over fifty hours a week.                      |
| 7. | Could youWe canHer deputy had to                                 |  | this form, please.the details later.for her when she was ill.                              |
| 8. | This brush mightWe didn't expect her toI'll wait for the tide to |  | useful.first.before going swimming.  |

Phrasal verbs with INTO

Complete each of the groups of sentences with one of the following verbs. Use each verb once only.

burst into
let into

come into
put into

get into
run into

go into
take into

- |                              |  |  |
|------------------------------|--|--|
| The car had                  |  | the back of a bus. It was a write-off. |
| The cost of rebuilding could |  | millions of pounds.                    |
| They've                      |  | difficulties over finance.             |
- |                     |  |  |
|---------------------|--|--|
| They expect to      |  | money when she dies.                     |
| The system didn't   |  | use until it had been thoroughly tested. |
| Why does his colour |  | it? Surely it's not relevant.            |
- |                      |  |                                  |
|----------------------|--|----------------------------------|
| I'm too fat! I can't |  | these trousers any more!         |
| She won't            |  | college unless she works harder. |
| If you               |  | difficulties, let me know.       |
- |                     |  |   |
|---------------------|--|---|
| The children        |  | tears when I said they couldn't go.     |
| The engine suddenly |  | flames while we were driving along.     |
| The audience        |  | loud applause as the curtain came down. |
- |              |  |                                |
|--------------|--|--------------------------------|
| They didn't  |  | any details of the accident.   |
| She's had to |  | hospital for an operation.     |
| He hopes to  |  | the navy when he's old enough. |
- |                              |       |                              |
|------------------------------|-------|------------------------------|
| I had a key so I was able to | (him) | the house.                   |
| We trusted him so we         | (him) | our secret.                  |
| I don't think we should      | (him) | our plan. I don't trust him. |
- |                              |       |                                  |
|------------------------------|-------|----------------------------------|
| The boss wants to            | (her) | the company as a junior partner. |
| I didn't trust her enough to | (her) | my confidence.                   |
| We've called an ambulance to | (her) | hospital.                        |
- |                     |               |               |
|---------------------|---------------|---------------|
| You need to         | (more effort) | your work.    |
| It's difficult to   | (my ideas)    | words.        |
| Do you think she'll | (more money)  | the business? |

