1. The phrase "state of high excitement or of great anxiety" indicates that Usher is experiencing:
   A) Calmness and peace
   B) Fluctuating emotions
   C) Indifference and boredom
   D) Happiness and joy
2. The expression "like the speech of a man who has drunk too much" implies that Usher's voice sounds:
   A) Clear and articulate
   B) Slurred and unsteady
   C) Confident and strong
   D) Quiet and reserved
3. The term "sharpness of the senses" in the context of Usher's condition suggests that he experiences:
   A) Dullness and fatigue
   B) Heightened sensitivity to stimuli
   C) Complete numbness
   D) Indifference to his surroundings
4. The phrase "I tremble at the thought" indicates that Usher feels:
   A) Calm and relaxed
   B) Fearful and anxious
   C) Excited and joyful
   D) Indifferent and unconcerned
5. The term "weakened state" refers to Usher's condition as:
   A) Strong and healthy
   B) Fragile and vulnerable
   C) Energetic and lively
   D) Confident and assertive
6. The word "bitterness" in the context of Usher's statement about his sister suggests:
   A) Happiness and contentment
   B) Resentment and sorrow
   C) Indifference and apathy
   D) Hopefulness and optimism

LIVEWORKSHEETS