Safety and Danger

Choose the correct expression to complete the sentences

The doctor said the patient is now _____ and will recover soon.

a) out of danger b) touch-and-go c) run the risk

If you drive too fast on icy roads, you might _____ of having an accident.

a) watch your step b) run the risk c) be on the safe side

After the engine failure, the pilot made an emergency landing.

It was a real_____.

a) close call b) out of danger c) watch your step

This bridge is unstable. You can cross it, but only _____ .

a) be on the safe side b) at your own risk c) touch-and-go

The rescue operation was _____, but luckily everyone survived.

a) close call b) touch-and-go c) out of danger

To_____, I always double-check my seatbelt before driving.

a) be on the safe side b) put someone in danger c) watch your step Careful! Don't lean too far out of the window—you could _____.

a) touch-and-go b) put someone in danger c) put yourself in danger

When hiking on rough terrain, it's important to _____ to avoid falling.

a) run the risk b) watch your step c) out of danger

The firefighter risked his life to save others; he didn't want to _____, but he knew it was his duty.

a) put himself in danger b) close call c) be on the safe side

The sign says the trail is slippery after rain. If you continue, it's _____.

a) out of danger b) at your own risk c) close call

LIVEWORKSHEETS