Summer responds that she wants to hang out with August because "he's a nice kid" and she just wants to be friends with him.

On the first day of school, Summer sat down with August because she felt sorry for him.

Many kids stopped "playing" and instead want to just "hang out" and talk more. Summer and August still like to play.

Kids are always asking Summer why is she hanging out with "the freak" (August).

The "plague" is a game where if someone touches August, they have 30 seconds to wash their hands; otherwise, they will catch the 'plague'. Nobody wants to touch August.

Summer has been sitting with August for the past 2 weeks. She says, "he's not the neatest eater," but she continues to sit with him because he is fun.

Summer was told that Julian likes her and that she could be popular if she wanted to; but she had to stop being friends with August first.

Summer was invited to Savanna's Halloween Party. Savanna is the most popular girl, so it was a big deal to get invited.

Summer was asked why does she hang out with the "Zombie kid". (It was a nickname given to August by Julian.

The next day, August acted weird towards Summer. He thought she's friends with him only because Mr. Tushman asked her to.

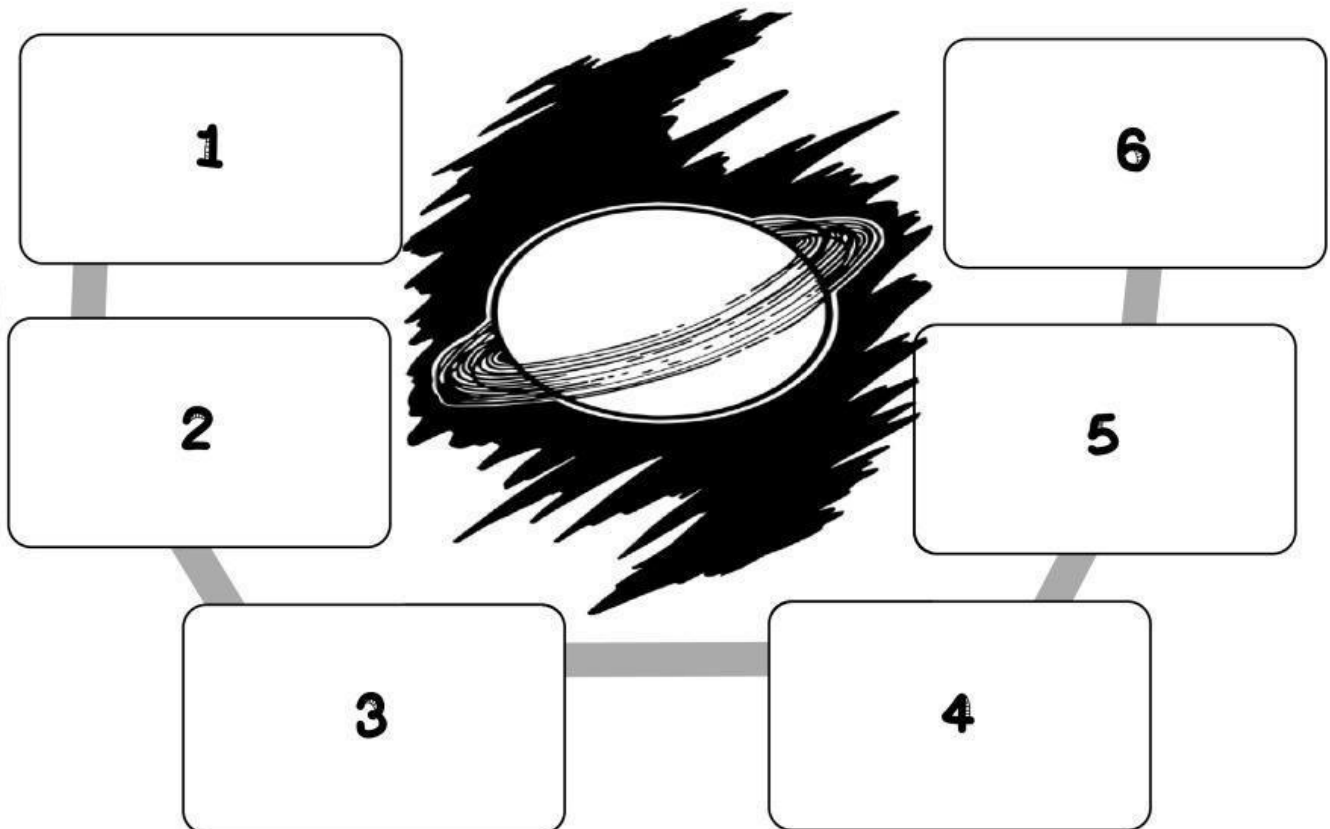

Summer was upset for being accused. August then tells her the story about Jack badmouthing him. Summer forgave August.

Savanna greeted Summer by asking where's her boyfriend (she meant August). She made a joke that August doesn't have to wear a costume for Halloween because of his face.
