

I BELIEVE – IAN DURY

I believe in bottle banks
And beauty from within
I believe in _____
And fresh air on the skin

I believe in _____
As tonic for the feet
I believe in serious talks
And just enough to eat

That's what I believe
Although it seems naïve
I believe in Santa Claus

That's what I believe

I believe in 'bob-a-job'
And life in outer space
I believe an open gob
Does nothing _____

I believe in _____
In spite of what you think
I believe in _____
And not too much to drink

That's what I believe
Surprising as it seems
I believe that _____
Is well within our dreams

That's what I believe
Although it seems naïve
I believe that _____
Are there to be achieved

I believe in being fair
St. Pancras station from the air
I believe in _____
Moonshine sparkles in your hair

I believe in being true
In everything you try to do

I hope you share my point of view

I believe in being kind
Especially when it's hard
I believe an open mind
Can show a fine regard

I believe that manners make
A person _____
I believe in birthday cake
And going with the flow

That's what I believe
As strange as it may be
I believe _____
Is good enough for me

That's what I believe
Although it seems naïve
I believe it simplifies
The tangled web we weave

That's what I believe...
