Read some of our FAQs about keeping fit and healthy during the school week and study sessions.

1 Q What can I do to get active during a school day and when can I do it?

A Getting exercise on a school day can be easy. Not enough people cycle or walk to and from school. And if that takes too much of your time, then use your lunch break to exercise or join a sports club after school.

2 Q I spend too much time sitting at a desk and not enough time on my feet. What can I do?

A We spend too many hours sitting at a desk or in front of a screen. Standing up exercises many different muscles. These muscles can become weak when we don't use them enough. You can now buy adjustable desks, which you can make higher so you can stand up while working. It's a good idea to stand and walk around every half an hour during long study sessions.

3 Q What are fitness balls and how can they help me?

A Some people say they feel too silly sitting on a big plastic ball. But fitness balls are a great way to work out, as they help to build the muscles in your back and stomach ... all while you're sitting down! A fitness ball for home study is perfect for long hours sitting at a desk.
