Separable & Inseparable Phrasal Verbs

A Write a ✔ (for correct) or a ✗ (for incorrect) next to the phrasal verbs. Correct the incorrect phrases.

1. The book is full of ideas and the author does a great job of getting across them _____ in simple language.
2. I've completely run out of ideas _____! What will I talk about in my presentation?
3. I am so tired of putting up with my roommate's sister! She comes every afternoon over _____ and she's so loud!
4. You know that you and your brother always disagree about politics. Why do you have to bring up it _____ every time you see him?
5. Can I use the car? I need to pick a friend of mine from English class up _____ this afternoon.
6. It's terribly cold outside. Please put your coat on _____ before you go out.
7. I always run Maria into _____ at the market. We always stop for a chat.
8. Anna won a free trip to the coast, but she turned it down _____ because she has an English exam that week.
9. The children in my class make lots of very funny stories up _____ when we have story time!
10. Jack takes his dad after _____. They have the same interests and both love learning new languages.
11. I'm looking for my Spanish dictionary _____. Have you seen it?
12. We had to read up the life of Napoleon on _____ for our history class.

LIVEWORKSHEETS