

Interesting Parts of a Coniferous Forests

This is the world's tallest tree. It is a Coastal Redwood named Hyperion.

This is the world's biggest tree. A Giant Sequoia named General Sherman and is estimated to weigh 2.5 million pounds!

This is the world's oldest tree. A Great Basin Bristlecone Pine. It is believed to be over 5,000 years old!

All three of these trees can be found in the state of California.

Can you name these animals?

This is a Spruce. Great for Christmas trees.

Pine trees in the forest

A fir tree. Douglas Firs make great Christmas trees, too!

Hemlock Pine tree

Cedar trees make your fireplace smell good when you burn the wood.

*Pinon trees are part of the coniferous forests but can mostly be found in New Mexico and Arizona.
Burning Pinon wood also makes your house smell great!*
