Grammar training

Tag Questions

Fill in the blanks.

1

Sam: So, we're making steak tonight, _____?

Stacey: Yes, and it's going to be delicious, _____? I mean, look at these cuts!

Sam: They look amazing! You picked them up from the butcher today, _____?

Stacey: I did! But you're in charge of seasoning this time, _____?

Sam: Of course. I'll keep it simple—salt, pepper, and garlic powder. Pass me the olive oil, _____?

Stacey: Sure. Let's get the grill heated now, _____?

Sam: We'd better! We barely have enough time before dinner, _____?

Stacey: Not really. Don't forget to slice the veggies for the salad, _____?

Sam: On it. Everything smells so good already, _____?

Stacey: It does. Nothing beats cooking together like this, _____?

2

Sam: That steak was perfect, _____?

Stacey: It really was.

Sam: I'm getting so good at this, _____?

Stacey: You definitely are. The seasoning was spot on.

Sam: And there were so many little details to prepare, but we handled it well, _____?

Stacey: We did! We've come a long way—we used to just throw something together quickly, _____?

Sam: Yeah, but cooking like this makes it feel special,_____?

Stacey: Absolutely. Let me make us some tea to finish the night, _____?

Sam: Sounds perfect. Those mugs we bought last year are still your favorite, _____?

Stacey: Yes, absolutely! That was such a good choice—they're just right for nights like this.

Sam: I agree. Tonight felt wonderful, _____?