The Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity (Wielka Orkiestra Świątecznej Pomocy) is a big charity event in Poland. It happens every year in January. The event raises money to help hospitals buy equipment for children and elderly people. It is one of the most famous charity events in Poland.

The organisation was started in 1993 by Jurek Owsiak. Every year, volunteers collect money in the streets. They give red heart stickers to people who donate. Many schools, companies, and communities organise special events to support the charity. There are concerts, auctions, and sports activities.

The day ends with a big event called "Light to the Sky." People gather to watch beautiful fireworks. This is a symbol of hope and kindness.

The Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity has helped thousands of hospitals in Poland. It shows that when people work together, they can do amazing things. Many Poles feel proud of this event because it brings people together to help others.
