

Phrasal verbs with "MAKE"

I don't know what to _____ think of his odd behaviour.

The policeman _____ chased the burglar.

Masked robbers broke in and _____ escaped with $8,000.

The article was included to _____ create a book.

She _____ pretended that she wasn't listening to him.

_____ Decide after thinking it over carefully.

How did you _____ perform in the exam?

He asked the tailor to _____ alter his dress.

Please _____ prepare a bill for these goods.

Please come back. I want to _____ reconcile. I want to be your Valentine.

No one can _____ determine how the fire started.

I can never _____ invent stories - I have absolutely no imagination.

I couldn't _____ decipher what she had written.

The great disparity between the teams did not _____ lead to an entertaining game.

Some boys _____ flatter their teachers to get good marks.

You grandmother gave it to me, and with the necklace I _____ pass on to you all the duty of remembering the original giver. It is to be a family reminder.

Children _____ constitute a large proportion of the world's population.

I'm going to _____ write a receipt for you.

I usually _____ get by with a cup of coffee for breakfast.

It's getting late; we'd better turn and _____ head towards home.

They hurried on to _____ compensate for lost time.