

Adjectives and Adverbs

We use them to describe nouns and pronouns. Adjectives can come before nouns or after linking verbs.

Example before nouns: I have a black cat.

What a beautiful view.

Example: after a linking verb: He seems tired.

The view is beautiful.

Some linking verbs can be: become, seem, be.

Are used to describe verbs, adjectives or the adverbs. They are often (but not always) made by adding "ly" to the adjective.

Example: I walk slowly (slowly tell us about the verb walk)

They worked quickly.

She sang loudly.

Irregular Adverbs

Good Well

Fast Fast

Hard Hard

Late Late

1. Complete the following sentences by choosing an adjective or adverb.

- a. Mathew wants to finish his homework _____. He wants to play videogames.
Quick Quickly
- b. Most of the students were in such hurry that they did _____ on their assignment.
Bad badly
- c. The classroom was very _____. Noisy noisily
- d. The flowers smelled _____. Good well
- e. She answered the questions _____. Correct correctly
- f. There was a _____ accident on the road. Terrible terribly
- g. It was snowing _____ all day. Heavy heavily
- h. The apple pie tastes _____. Wonderful wonderfully

1. Complete the following reading with the adverbs in the box.

Adverbs

Happily carefully(x2) efficiently quickly Slowly fast early hard immediately

Emma is a journalist for a popular news website. Every morning, she wakes up _____ and checks the latest news. She knows she needs to gather information _____ to write her articles.

One day, Emma received a tip about an important story. She drove to the location _____ to meet with her source. The source spoke _____, sharing all the details. Emma listened _____, taking notes on her notepad.

Back at the office, Emma typed her article _____, making sure every fact was correct. She edited the text _____ to ensure it was clear and engaging. Once she finished, she submitted the article _____ to her editor.

Later, Emma's editor called to say the article was excellent. It had been published and was already getting many views. Emma smiled _____, proud of her hard work. She knew that being a journalist meant working _____, but she loved uncovering the truth and sharing it with the world.