Family members – Present continuous

Jan: You look tired, Monica. (study) late at night these days?

Monica: No, I'm not. My brother and sister (stay) with me right now. They keep me up late every night.

Jan: Really, both of them? What (do) this summer?
 (take) classes, too?

Monica: No, they aren't. My brother is on vacation now, but he (look) for a part-time job here.

Jan: What about your sister? (work)?

Monica: Yes, she is. She has a part-time job at a university. What about you, Jan? Are you in school this summer?

Jan: Yes, I am. I (study) two languages.

Monica: Oh, (take) Korean and Spanish again?

Jan: Well, I'm taking Korean, but now I (start) Portuguese classes.

Monica: Really? That's exciting!
