

★ ALL STARS ★ WILL VS. GOING TO!

We can talk about future events using both structures but ...
How are they different?

We use WILL when we plan something WHILE we are speaking.

For example: I WILL BUY CANDIES TODAY.

However, we use GOING TO when we plan something before we speak. Like: I'M GOING TO BUY CANDIES TODAY AFTER SCHOOL.

We use these structures when the future event is a prediction.

When we express a prediction with WILL, it is an opinion based on our beliefs. For example: I THINK SHE WILL PASS THE EXAM.

Also, we can express a prediction with GOING TO when we have a clear evidence: SHE IS GOING TO PASS THE EXAM. SHE STUDIES A LOT!

Last, we use WILL when we want to make a promise, a request or an offer: I WILL GIVE IT BACK TO YOU.

WILL YOU HELP ME TODAY?

I WILL HELP YOU TOMORROW, IF YOU WANT.

★ GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY! ★

Read the sentences. Complete with WILL or GOING TO when you consider correct.
Finally, match each of the words in red with one from the list of synonyms on the right.

1. I think you shouldn't watch that movie. You feel extremely frightened.

2. I am knackered after this week! I go to bed as soon as I get home.

3. Are you really accept that offer? I am puzzled!

4. Your brother says he is leave university! I am astonished!

5. I not come back to this shop again! The shop staff is unhelpful and uninterested!

6. I be delightful with your visit!

7. My parents are get divorced. My siblings and I are mournful.

8. I am sure my boss be fuming if I don't finish this paper work today!

HAPPY

SAD

CONFUSED

SHOCKED

TIRED

ANGRY

SCARED

MY FUTURE PLANS!

There are four paragraphs that talk about different future plans. Decide what's the best title for each paragraph and then rank the topics in order of importance to your consideration.

You may not be where you want to be in your career right now, but that doesn't mean you can't have a plan for how to get there in the future. You will need to set some goals for yourself that you want to achieve throughout your career, and then put a plan in place for how you're going to achieve them. Regular reflection on your career will help you continue to adapt to your goals so that you can move forward in the direction you want to take.

Everyone feels pressure to be busy and always on the go but if you enjoy things a little more if you release the speed pedal a bit. Being under constant pressure to be productive and to have a full schedule can lead to stress, anxiety, and other health issues. Is it worth putting that strain on yourself? Enjoy the health benefits so that you can keep enjoying yourself in the future.

You are going to establish good savings habits at a young age if you find ways to save every month.

One of the easiest ways to save money is to set yourself a budget. Your monthly budget will be there to keep your spending on track and make sure all of your bills are covered. This will help you make financial choices in the future. Follow this rule and you are going to provide for yourself and your family a great future.

Once you've got a good health guaranteed, the next thing you should do is learn how to invest. This will help you grow your savings and can help you pay for things like home improvements and more. With some help, you can learn the rules to get the most out of your retirement funds. The earlier you invest, the more success you could see. You could soon enjoy some investment success of your own when you get older.

What's the best title for each paragraph?

GETTING INTO THE HABIT OF SAVING.

LEARN HOW TO TAKE THINGS SLOW.

DEVELOPING A CAREER PLAN.

MAKING INVESTMENTS FOR YOUR RETIREMENT.

What's the most important of these four advices? Write a short text saying why that advice is important to you.