Language in context

A. Listen and practice.

Emma: Hey, Jake. If you won the lottery, what would you do with the money?

Jake: Hmm, that's a great question. If I won the lottery, I would buy a house for my parents first. What about you?

Emma: Oh, if I won the lottery, I would save money for traveling around the world. I've always wanted to visit new places.

Jake: That sounds amazing! If I saved enough money, I would definitely travel too. But honestly, I'd also invest some of it.

Emma: That's smart. If I got a promotion at work, I'd invest more in my career, maybe take a course or attend a leadership workshop.

Jake: Yeah, that's a good idea. If I met a mentor, I would ask them for advice on how to grow professionally.

Emma: Absolutely. If we planned carefully, we could do so much more with our time and money.

Jake: Totally. Now, if only we could win that lottery!

Emma: Haha, right! If only.

B. Let's talk!
