

PRONUNCIATION

7 A  1.05 | word stress in jobs | Listen to the jobs. Underline the stressed syllable or syllables.

- 1 a businesswoman
- 2 an actor
- 3 a police officer
- 4 a singer
- 5 a taxi driver
- 6 an office worker
- 7 a nurse
- 8 a shop assistant
- 9 a digital designer
- 10 a football player

B  1.05 | Listen again and repeat.

READING

8 A Read the blog post quickly. Tick the jobs that the people have.

a digital designer   a doctor   a nurse an office worker   a police officer   a student a taxi driver   a waiter

B Complete the table with information from the blog.

name	nationality	job or jobs

C Read the blog again. Are the statements True (T) or False (F)?

- 1 Sandra is Argentinian.
- 2 She's a student at Cambridge University.
- 3 She isn't happy in Cambridge.
- 4 Rob is British.
- 5 He's an office worker at the weekend.
- 6 His job is difficult.
- 7 Kasia is a nurse at a big hospital.
- 8 Her job isn't very difficult.
- 9 Charlie is Italian.
- 10 He is happy with his jobs.

The question of the day: What's your job?

Sarah Taylor | Oxford Street, London

Sandra Martínez is from Bogotá in Colombia.

'I'm a student at Cambridge University. It's a great university. At the weekend, I'm a waiter in a French restaurant. I'm very happy in Cambridge.'

Rob Marshall is from Birmingham in the UK.

'From Monday to Friday, I'm an office worker. It's not difficult, but the money isn't very good.'

Kasia Wójcik is from Kraków in Poland.

'I'm a doctor at a big hospital here in London. My job is very difficult, but it's great!'

Charlie Cox is from New York in the USA.

'I'm a digital designer for an Italian company and I'm also an artist. London is a great city and I'm very happy with my jobs!'

