Read the sentences. Which meaning of like is used? Write the letter.

a. to give an example	d. to report what someone said
b. to highlight something	✓e. to say approximately
c. to say something is similar

1. I've known Giovanni for like ten years. e
2. My mom asked me to look for her car keys, and I was like, "Again!?" _____
3. I'm always like so tired in the morning, and it's so hard to get out of bed. _____
4. I'm just like my father – we're both tall, athletic, and easygoing. _____
5. My little sister loves TV. Like, she's always watching cartoons or game shows. _____
6. I've been studying for like weeks so that I do well on my final exams. _____
7. I wanted to leave work early tonight, but my boss was like, "You can't leave until you finish your report." _____
8. I'm always forgetting things. Like, I went to the supermarket the other day, and I forgot what I was supposed to buy! _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS