

PRACTICING PRONOUN AGREEMENT

Choose the correct pronoun for each sentence based on the articles read.

1. When we arrived at Mauthausen Concentration Camp my father and I me had to climb a large hill to get from the train to the camp.
2. Everything in the camp areas was were filled to overflowing.
3. My sister was dragging herself around trying to keep I me alive.
4. The guards and they them all left the camp to escape on May 4, 1945.
5. The soldiers were horrified when they saw the conditions of the camp and we us.
6. I me remember the expression on the face of one soldier when he saw I me.
7. I recognized the pain he him felt for me and my awful condition.
8. The Black Messiah and he him are the soldier at the camp.
9. The prisoners and they them are separated physically when the soldiers move on.
10. The Allies knew what was happening to they them but prison camps were not a priority.