State if the following future continuous sentences are written in the affirmative or the negative form by writing affirmative or negative in the spaces provided.

Examples:

Joel and Nasri will be going to sleep early tonight. Affirmative

The girls won't be performing at the concert next week. Negative

1. The kids will be touring the island this weekend. _____
2. We will be cooking all day tomorrow for the picnic. _____
3. The children will not be walking to school if it rains. _____
4. My son will be sleeping when I get home. _____
5. We won't be going to school until the pandemic is over. _____
6. The plane will be landing in New York in an hour. _____
7. We will be selling our house next year. _____
8. The horses won't be racing until next week. _____
9. The fishermen will not be fishing before summer. _____
10. The children will be hiking to Farley Hill tomorrow. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS