Assessment Cognitive for X Students

A. True False

Analytical exposition text only contains writer's opinion	T/F
Arguments in analytical exposition text must contain fact	T/F
The function of analytical exposition is to persuade the reader, not entertain	T/F
An analytical exposition text should always include examples or factual evidence to strengthen the argument	T/F
In an analytical exposition text, the thesis statement usually appears at the end of the text False	T/F
Progressive Present tense is one of the language features in analytical exposition text	T/F
Analytical exposition text always ends with a suggestion for the reader to take action. False	T/F
Resolution is not part of analytical exposition text's structure	T/F

LIVEWORKSHEETS