

Grammar training

Passive Voice

Sophia and James have recently moved to a new country and are adjusting to their new life. Read the sentences and match the parts to see how they are adapting to changes.

1. James is preparing for job interviews.
2. Sophia wants to continue her career as a graphic designer.
3. The family is trying to open a bank account.
4. Sophia is registering the family for healthcare.
5. James is checking the weather forecast right now.
6. Sophia is looking for new places to shop.
7. James and Sophia are meeting their new neighbors.
8. They are adjusting to a new morning routine.
9. James is trying to find a good coffee shop near their apartment.
10. Sophia is organizing the kitchen in their new apartment.
11. They are decorating their living room with local artwork.

Medical insurance has already been arranged for them.

A list of local markets has been provided by their landlord.

Their work schedules have been shifted to match local time.

His CV has already been submitted to multiple companies.

Her portfolio has been updated with her latest projects.

Several forms have to be filled out before it gets approved.

A sudden temperature drop has been predicted for the weekend.

Most of their belongings have already been unpacked.

A beautiful painting has been purchased from a nearby gallery.

A list of popular cafés has been recommended to him by locals.

A welcome dinner has been planned for them.