

How are business done in your country?

Every country does business differently. Move the activities to the column that you consider fits best.

shaking hands

bowing

kissing

punctuality

humor

exchanging business cards

being formal / informmal

socialising with contacts

small talk before meetings

using first names

accepting interruption

giving presents

being direct

eye contact

important

not important

best
avoided