The Night of the Bright Kite

Mia and Pete are outside playing with a shiny red kite. "Look at it go!" says Pete. "It's flying higher than the trees!"

Suddenly, the kite's string gets caught in a tall green tree. "Oh no! My kite is stuck!" cries Pete.

"Don't worry," says Mia. "Let's get a stick to free it."

They try with a stick, but the kite is too high. "We need to climb the tree," says Pete. Working together, they climb up, untie the kite, and cheer, "We got it!"

Pete lets the kite fly again, and it soars high into the starry night. "This is the best night ever!" says Mia.

Pete laughs. "I agree. Nothing beats a bright kite and a little adventure!"
