

PRONOUN TYPES AND AGREEMENT PRACTICE

Drag and drop the type of pronoun that is underlined in each sentence:

personal - nominative

indefinite - singular

relative

personal - objective

indefinite - plural

demonstrative

interrogative

reflexive

possessive

1. In "Never Shall I Forget" Elie Wiesel tells of his experiences when he first arrives at a concentration camp. _____
2. The lucky who were near a window could breathe on the train. _____
3. Mrs. Schacter screamed, "I see fire!" _____
4. "Jews, listen to me," she cried. "I see a fire!" _____
5. "Why have you come here?" questioned the inmate. _____
6. Someone dared to reply: "What do you think? That we came here of our own free will?" _____
7. We told ourselves we must not give up hope even as the sword hangs over our heads. _____
8. As we approached the pit, all around us were weeping. _____
9. "Never shall I forget those flames that consumed my faith forever."
_____