Instruction:

After completing your nationalistic song project, reflect on your experience and the process you went through. Answer the questions below in your Learning Log to help you evaluate your work and your learning.

Process Questions:

1. What was the most challenging part of creating your nationalistic song?
 - Consider aspects like the melody, lyrics, cultural relevance, or performance.

2. What techniques or elements did you use in your song that reflect your country's culture or history?
 - Reflect on the musical techniques, themes, or cultural symbols you included.

3. How did you ensure your song effectively conveys the message of national pride and cultural heritage?
 - Explain the thought process and decisions you made while composing and performing your song.

4. What feedback did you receive from your classmates or teacher, and how did you use it to improve your song?
 - Consider how constructive criticism influenced your creative choices.
