Michael Jackson – The King of Pop

Michael Jackson was a famous American singer, dancer, and songwriter. He was born on August 29, 1958, in Gary, Indiana, USA. He was the eighth of ten children in his family.

Michael started singing when he was very young. He joined his brothers in a music group called The Jackson 5. They became very popular in the 1960s and 1970s. Some of their famous songs were ABC and I Want You Back.

Later, Michael started his solo career. In 1982, he released the album Thriller. It became the best-selling album in the world.

The music video for Thriller was very famous, and many people loved his dance moves. One of his most famous dances was the moonwalk.

Michael Jackson had many hit songs, like Billie Jean, Beat It, Bad, and Smooth Criminal. He won many awards and was called the "King of Pop".

Michael was also known for his charity work. He helped many children and gave money to different causes.

He passed away on June 25, 2009, but his music is still loved by people all over the world.
