

Present Perfect vs. Present Perfect Continuous Test

Section 1: Fill in the blanks

1. I _____ (read) this book for two hours, and I still haven't finished it.
2. She _____ (visit) France three times.
3. We _____ (wait) for the bus since 3 PM.
4. He _____ (work) at the same company for ten years.
5. They _____ (not finish) their project yet.
6. My parents _____ (live) in this house since 1995.
7. The children _____ (play) outside all morning.
8. I _____ (not see) my best friend in months.
9. How long _____ you _____ (study) English?
10. She _____ (write) emails all day, and she's very tired now.

Section 2: Choose the correct option

11. He (has been running / has run) for an hour, so he is exhausted.
12. We (have known / have been knowing) each other since childhood.
13. She (has been cooking / has cooked) dinner three times this week.
14. They (have played / have been playing) football since this morning.
15. I (have cleaned / have been cleaning) my room, so now it looks tidy.
16. He (has studied / has been studying) Spanish for two years.
17. You (have waited / have been waiting) for an answer all day.
18. The teacher (has explained / has been explaining) the lesson twice already.
19. I (have been trying / have tried) to call you all day, but you didn't answer.
20. She (has visited / has been visiting) many countries in her life.

Present Perfect vs. Present Perfect Continuous Test

Section 3: Correct the mistakes

21. He has been reading five books this year.
22. They have waited for you since two hours.
23. She has ever visited Japan.
24. I have been knowing him for a long time.
25. The baby has cried for 30 minutes.
26. We have been finishing our homework.
27. How many times has you eaten sushi?
28. I has been working here for ten years.
29. She has been writing three essays today.
30. They have played chess all morning.

Section 4: Rewrite the sentences

31. She started learning French five years ago. (Use present perfect)
32. I began painting this picture an hour ago, and I am still painting it. (Use present perfect continuous)
33. He started his new job in 2021. (Use present perfect)
34. They started playing basketball at 10 AM. It is now 12 PM. (Use present perfect continuous)
35. She first met her best friend in 2010. (Use present perfect)