Listening

5 Name the places in the pictures.

Now listen to three dialogues. In which of the places does each take place?

Speaking

6 In pairs, act out a similar dialogue for another shop.

A: How can I help you?

B: I'd like a bunch of roses, please.

A: Certainly, ... etc.

7 a) Read the sentences. Say them in your language.

- There are a lot of tall buildings in New York, whereas in Dublin most buildings only have a few storeys.
- There aren't any supermarkets in the village, but there are two small greengrocers and a bakery.
- The town is very far from the sea. However, it has a great public swimming pool.

b) Read the text on p. 94 again and make notes. Compare the two cities. Use whereas, however, but.

Verona in Wisconsin is a small city, whereas Verona in Italy is a large, cosmopolitan city.

Writing

8 Write a short paragraph comparing your town/city/village to Verona, Italy. Think about streets, parks, shops, markets, buildings, houses, restaurants.

In my ... there are ..., whereas in Verona there aren't ...
