

PAST TENSES WORKSHEET – JANET’S ROBBERY

Last year, Janet _____ (finish) her shift and she was done with a very long meeting and couldn't wait to get some Iced Coffee. So, she _____ (go) to the coffee shop and _____ (order) an Iced Latte.

Suddenly, a shady-looking man _____ (come) out of nowhere, and _____ (ask) her about the time. She _____ (-have) her watch that day, so she took out her phone from her bag and _____ (tell) him it was 5:30pm. Then, he told Janet that he was a little bit lost because he _____ (be) to the city before. Janet _____ (find) that strange, given that he _____ (look) like a local and he was pretty nervous. So, he got closer to her, _____ (ask) her to stay quiet and start walking and pointed a gun, which was covered by his jacket and hidden in his right pocket, to her stomach.

Obviously, Janet _____ (-expect) that, so she just did what he _____ (ask). The thief asked her not to scream and carefully hand him the laptop and cellphone she had in her bag. Or else, he would fire the gun. Even though she _____ (try) her best to hang on to her things, the thief _____ (take) them anyways.

After that, he _____ (walk) past Janet and _____ (disappear) across the street, leaving her completely shocked and without her belongings.

Some minutes later, she _____ (help) by a cop and feeling more determined than ever, Janet _____ (start) self-defense classes to protect herself, turning a scary moment into a chance to be stronger.
