Name: Class: Date:

1. What is the definition of a procedure text?
    a) A text that tells a story, either fictional or real.
    b) A text that provides instructions on how to perform a specific task
    c) A text that provides factual information about a subject.
    d) A text that aims to describe a person, place, thing, or event in detail.

2. What is the main purpose of a procedure text?
    a) To entertain the reader
    b) To explain why something happens
    c) To give instructions on how to do something
    d) To describe a place or person

3. What is the generic structure of a procedure text?
    a) Orientation-Complication-Resolution
    b) Goal-Materials-Steps
    c) Introduction-Body-Conclusion
    d) Setting-Conflict-Solution

4. Which of the following is NOT an example of a procedure text?
    a) A recipe for baking cookies
    b) An instruction for turning on a TV
    c) A tutorial for making a pencil holder from a can
    d) An explanation of a natural phenomenon

5. What is the function of the GOAL in a procedure text?
    a) To list the tools used in the procedure
    b) To inform the purpose of the text
    c) To list the steps to complete the task

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d) To provide detailed materials

6. Which sentence could best represent the GOAL in a procedure text?
   a) "To make a DIY pencil case."
   b) "You need glue, wood, and nails."
   c) "Attach the roof to the base."
   d) "Use a knife to cut the meat."

7. Which statement correctly describes the MATERIALS section?
   a) It contains the list of tools and items needed to perform the steps.
   b) It gives background information about the task.
   c) It provides a summary of the process.
   d) It explains the purpose of the text.

8. If the MATERIALS section is missing on a procedure text, what is the impact?
   a) The readers do not understand the purpose.
   b) The readers will not know what tools or ingredients are needed.
   c) The steps will become unclear.
   d) The text will become a narrative text.

9. What feature is common in the STEPS section of a procedure text?
   a) Use of action verbs and sequential connectors.
   b) List of tools and ingredients
   c) Background information about the text
   d) Opinions and analysis

10. In the STEPS section of a procedure text, what format is commonly used?
    a) Long paragraphs with explanations
    b) A chart or diagram
    c) Numbers or bulleted points
    d) A persuasive argument

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. Which of the following is an example of a STEP in a procedure text?
    a) "Chocolate, flour, and eggs."
    b) "How to bake a chocolate cake."
    c) "Place the cake in the oven for 30 minutes."
    d) "I like to cook on weekends."

12. What is the role of action verbs in a procedure text?
    a) To describe emotions
    b) To show actions that need to be performed
    c) To compare different opinions
    d) To persuade the reader

13. Which of the following is an example of an action verb commonly used in procedure texts?
    a) Think
    b) Believe
    c) Stir
    d) Imagine

14. Which sentence contains an action verb used in a procedure text?
    a) "The cat is sitting on the sofa."
    b) "Cut the paper into small pieces."
    c) "She loves playing the guitar."
    d) "They will go to the zoo."

15. What is a common grammatical feature/characteristics of imperative sentences?
    a) They always begin with a subject
    b) They use a base verb (V1) without a subject
    c) They always end with a question mark
    d) They are written in perfect tense

LIVEWORKSHEETS

16. Which of the following is the example of an imperative sentence?

a) "The eggs should be boiled until hard."
b) "I add a little salt to the water."
c) "Boil the eggs for ten minutes."
d) "They are boiling the eggs."

17. What is the function of imperative sentences in a procedure text?

a) To give commands or instructions
b) To describe past experiences
c) To express opinions
d) To express a wish

18. Which tense is commonly used in a procedure text?

a) Simple Present Tense
b) Past Perfect Tense
c) Future Continuous Tense
d) Present Continuous Tense

19. Why is the Simple Present tense used in procedure texts?

a) It indicates that the actions are repeatable and not tied to any specific time.
b) It indicates that the actions happened in the past.
c) It indicates that the actions will happen in the future.
d) It indicates that the actions are happening in real time.

20. What is the function of adverbs in a procedure text?

a) To show the sequence of steps
b) To describe how, where, and when an action should be performed
c) To introduce a new topic
d) To give opinions about the procedure

LIVEWORKSHEETS

21. Why are adverbs such as "slowly," "carefully," and "thoroughly" important in procedure texts?
    a) They add emotional appeal
    b) They describe how actions should be performed
    c) They make the text more persuasive
    d) They are used to compare different actions

22. Which sentence correctly uses an adverb in a procedure text?
    a) "Boil the water."
    b) "Boil the water gently for five minutes."
    c) "Water is boiling."
    d) "Boiling water is hot."

23. What is the purpose of using sequential connectors in a procedure text?
    a) To make the instructions more persuasive
    b) To describe why the procedure is important
    c) To organize the steps in a logical order
    d) To compare different methods

24. Which of the following is a sequential connector commonly used in procedure texts?
    a) Additionally
    b) However
    c) Therefore
    d) Finally

25. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a procedure text?
    a) It provides step-by-step instructions
    b) It uses imperative sentences
    c) It focuses on opinions and arguments
    d) It includes materials or ingredients

LIVEWORKSHEETS