

1 Choose the correct item.

- 1 Beth expects she'll get/'s going to get the job she's applied for.
- 2 I'm thirsty. I'm going to drink/'ll drink some water.
- 3 It's a clear sunny day; it's not going to rain/ won't rain.
- 4 Please leave the premises quietly or I'll call/'m going to call security.
- 5 Perhaps Sandra will come/ls going to come to the theatre with you.
- 6 David thinks the charity event is going to be/ will be a great success.
- 7 Be careful! You'll trip/'re going to trip over that cable.
- 8 Brooke is afraid she'll fail/'s going to fail her driving test.

- 1 "Are you taking the tram home later."
"No, Gary me up from the office at 6:00"
A will have picked C will pick
B is going to pick D picks
- 2 "I can help you sort through the job application tomorrow."
"Thanks, but I... by then."
A 'll have been finishing C 'll have finished
B 'll finish D 'm finishing
- 3 "A lot of people have turned up for the book signing."
"I know. By the time the shop closes, the author....books for six hours."
A will have been signing C will be signing
B is going to sign D is signing
- 4 "I need to speak to Mr Johnson."
"Make sure you do so before he ... his meeting."
A will start C starts
B will have started D is starting
- 5 "What are you so happy about?"
This time on Monday, Iretirement."
A 'll be enjoying C *m enjoying
B 'll have been enjoying D 'll enjoy
- 6 "What time are you leaving tonight?"
"I don't know. I can't go...I've finished report."
A once C when
B after D until
- 7 "Penny is a really ambitious person."
"I know. I'm sure she..... this corporation day."
A runs C will run
B will have run D is running
- 8 "Did the meeting with the new clients go?"
"No. The lights went out I had started making my presentation."
A as long as C until
B just as D while