Text for Reading:

In the small village of Greenfield, there is a tiny school with 20 students. The school is very colourful – the walls are blue, and the furniture is yellow. Each student has a computer in the classroom. They use their gadgets to learn about countries and nationalities, as well as history and geography.

Every day, the students start their lessons at 9 o'clock. On Mondays and Fridays, they study numbers and maths. On Wednesdays, they talk about the seasons, months, and days of the week. The students also practise speaking English in the mornings. They use simple sentences like "My name is..." and "I have got a dog."

The students can play games during breaks. They often play on the green grass in front of the school. Their favourite activity is football, but sometimes they draw pictures of animals and objects like books or phones. The teachers are kind and always help with new words and grammar.
