Inside the box, there are seven horizontal text input fields, each containing a line of text. To the right of the box, there is a vertical yellow bar. Below the box, there is a large, empty light blue rectangular area. In the bottom right corner, there is a circular badge with a red heart and the text 'I ♥ MY BLOG'.

My name is Nataliia. I usually spend 3-4 hours on the Internet every day.

I usually search for information for my work or watch videos and listen to music.

I know a lot of interesting websites and apps. My favourite app is Spotify.

The main advantage is that it has a lot of different music.

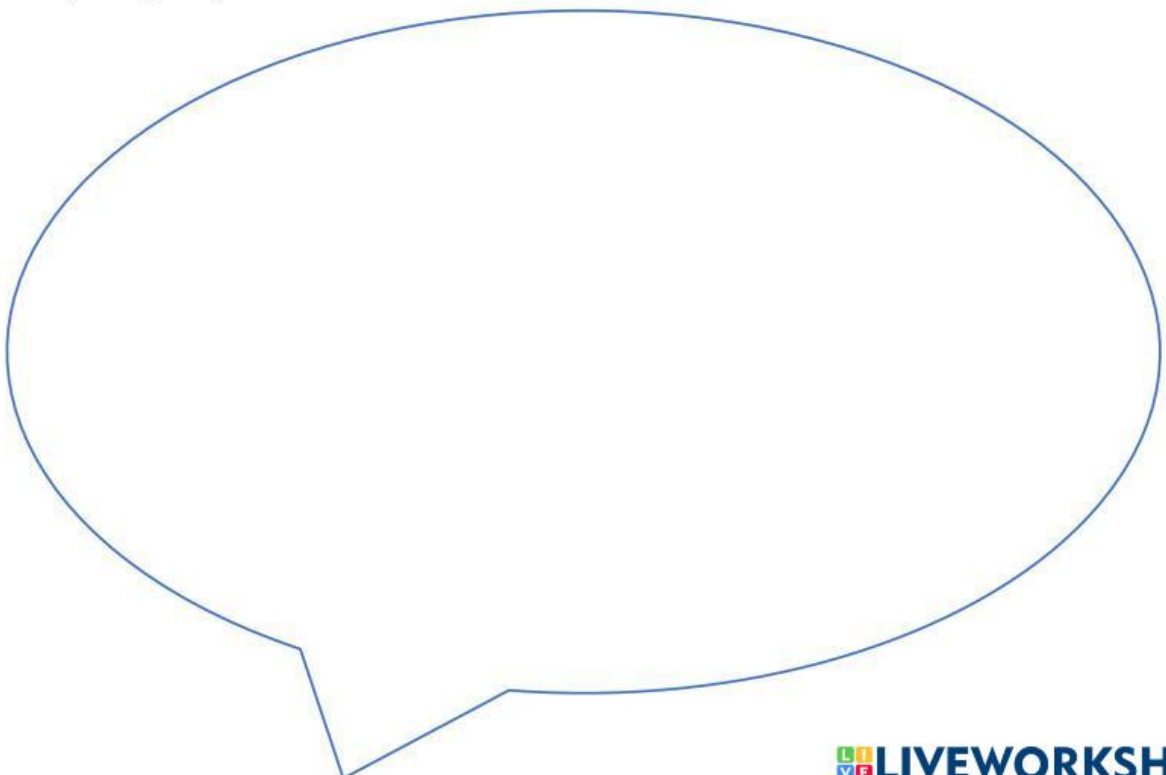

The main disadvantage is that you have to pay so you can listen the full song.

Also, you can't download any song from it.
