Anna Loves to Draw

Anna loves to draw and paint. Every Sunday, she sits in the park with her paper, pencils, and paints. She draws trees, flowers, and birds. She likes to use many colors. She paints the sky blue, the leaves green, and the flowers red and yellow. The sun is big, and the day is warm.

Fill in the gaps with one, two, or three words:

1. Anna loves to _____ and paint.
2. She sits in the park with her paper, _____, and paints.
3. She paints the sky _____.

One day, a boy stops and watches her. "Your picture is beautiful!" he says. Anna smiles. She gives him a piece of paper and a pencil. "Do you want to draw?" she asks. The boy says yes. He draws a red house with a big door and four windows. Anna helps him color the roof. They laugh and use many bright colors.

Fill in the gaps with one, two, or three words:

4. A _____ stops and watches Anna.
5. Anna gives him a paper and _____.
6. The boy draws _____.

Every Sunday, they sit together and draw. They make pictures of the park, the sky, and their families. Anna likes to mix colors. She mixes red and yellow to make orange. She mixes blue and yellow to make green. The wind is soft, and they smile. Anna is happy. Drawing is fun with a friend!

Fill in the gaps with one, two, or three words:

7. Every _____, they sit together and draw.
8. Anna mixes blue and yellow to make _____.
9. Anna is _____ because drawing is fun with a friend.

Write a question for Maia, Nati, Clara or Oti. Example. Can you show us your favourite drawing? 😊

LIVEWORKSHEETS