petrol, complicated, drown, reason, wax, secret, exist, launch, labyrinth, inventor, sets of wings, propeller, impossible

In the little town of Greenton, there was an _____(1) named Max who had a big dream. He believed there was a _____(2) labyrinth in the sky where all ideas _____(3). Max wanted to _____(4) a flying machine to find it, but people said it was _____(5).

One day, while working on his new _____(6) engine, Max had an idea. He imagined two _____(7) with a _____(8) at the front. The machine looked _____(9), but Max had a good _____(10) to try. He used _____(11) to build his wings. Everyone laughed, thinking he would _____(12) in the sea of clouds.

Despite the jokes, Max climbed aboard his machine. With a roar, the petrol engine started, and Max took off. The townspeople watched in awe as he flew higher. Just when they thought he would fail, Max disappeared into the clouds, chasing his dream of finding the _____(13). The whole town realized that sometimes, something impossible could become real.