

Action verbs specify actions, while linking verbs do not. Choose if the underlined verb is Action or Linking verb.

1. Each person presented a report at every meeting.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

2. Everyone's description was different.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

3. Luke defined three main cloud shapes.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

4. Altogether he labeled seven types of clouds.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

5. He gave each shape a Latin name.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

6. Each cloud's name tells something about its shape and its height.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

7. Cirrus is a Latin word for "a curl of hair."

Action Verb

Linking Verb

8. Stratus clouds and cumulus clouds appear low in the sky.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

9. Today there are ten basic names for clouds.

Action Verb

Linking Verb

10. Five of the names come from Luke's classification.

Action Verb

Linking Verb