ACTIVE READING | The meaning of new words

When you find new words in a text:

- don't panic – often you don't need them to understand the main ideas of the text
- decide what part of speech they are: a noun, a verb, an adjective, etc.
- read before and after the word and guess the meaning from the context

Sometimes new words can be similar to words in your own language. That can help you understand them, but watch out for 'false friends'.

6 Read before and after the underlined words in the text and use the context to work out their meaning.

SUNDAY

I'm sitting a History exam next Thursday. It's an important exam. I want to get a good mark. So, I know what I should do. I should revise for a few hours every day until I'm prepared.

I get out my History book. Tonight, I'm going to study the Second World War. But I don't open the book. Instead, I switch on my computer and start playing Warplans. <sup>1</sup> ___ Time flies when you're having fun. I pick up my History book. It falls open at a chapter called 'The Marshall Plan'. That's it! I need a plan.

Thirty minutes later I have a great study plan. Now, all I need to do is to start studying. However, it's almost midnight, so I give up and go to bed.

MONDAY

My History book is open and I have a yellow highlighter in my hand. I'm ready to revise. I glance at my reflection in the window. 'I'm going to pass this exam,' I tell myself. Then I notice my hair is a mess. I need a haircut. So I go on YouTube and watch some hairstyle videos. <sup>2</sup> ___ I redo my study plan. I'm really going to work hard tomorrow.

TUESDAY

I'm going to revise for three hours. I'm about to start when I feel peckish, so I go to the kitchen to get a biscuit. <sup>3</sup> ___ I get some orange squash. I carry on studying for a few minutes but then I need to go to the toilet. After that, I call my friend Vicky. She's sitting the same exam as me. I ask how she's getting on. We talk for ages. Finally, I start revising seriously. <sup>4</sup> ___ I can't find it in all the clutter on my desk. I should clear it up.

Three hours later my room is tidy. I'm exhausted. I fall into bed.

WEDNESDAY

I'm in a panic. I really don't want to fail this exam. My brother yells up the stairs, 'There's football on the telly in ten minutes!' He comes up to the landing. 'England are playing Germany.' I ignore him. I can't watch football. I'm going to study all night.

THURSDAY

I studied until 4 a.m. I felt dreadful in the morning but I did the exam. I think I passed but I'm not sure.

I wonder why I always put off important things until the last moment. It's not sensible. <sup>5</sup> ___ It means I never do the things I have to do until panic makes me do them.

I want to change. Procrastination makes me miserable. I find a YouTube video called 'How to stop procrastinating'. I'm going to watch it.

But maybe not right now.
