

Fill in the blanks with the correct relative pronoun (who, which, that, whose, where).

1. The boy ___ is wearing a red shirt is my brother.
2. This is the book ___ I borrowed from the library.
3. She has a friend ___ father is a doctor.
4. That's the restaurant ___ we had dinner last night.
5. I know a girl ___ can speak five languages.
6. The car ___ was parked outside belongs to my uncle.
7. Do you know the teacher ___ teaches English?

Task 2

Descriptive Paragraph with Relative Clauses

Instructions: Write a paragraph (6–8 sentences) about an important place in your life. Use at least four relative clauses.

Example Prompts:

Write about your hometown (history, special places, famous landmarks).

Example Paragraph:

One of the most important places in my life is the library, which is quiet and filled with books. It is a place where I can read, study, and relax. The shelves, which hold stories from all over the world, make it feel magical. There is a cozy corner that has big windows and soft chairs, perfect for reading. The librarians, who are always kind and helpful, make finding books easy. No matter where I go, the library will always be a special place that feels like home.
