

The Big Dipper and The Little Dipper

Fill-in-the-blank / Multiple Choice

1. In The Big Dipper, the handle Points _____.
2. The Little Dipper only has ____ stars that you can really see.
3. The Big Dipper is _____ in size.
4. Stars in the Big Dipper are _____ in magnitude (size).
5. The Little Dipper's handle curves _____.
6. What is the name of the North Star?
 - a. Northern Lights
 - b. Polaris
 - c. Orion's Belt
7. The Big Dipper is part of a larger constellation called _____.
8. The Big Dipper and Little Dipper are not true constellations, they are names of _____.
9. The Little Dipper is part of a larger constellation called _____.

Matching:

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 10. Circumpolar | constellation located to the right of the Little Dipper - helps guide you to Polaris |
| 11. Asterism | part of a larger constellation called URSA MINOR |
| 12. Cassiopeia | can be seen all year round |
| 13. The Big Dipper | part of a larger constellation called URSA MAJOR |
| 14. The Little Dipper | a simple star pattern that can be used as a guide to the night sky |