Eva Hello. Welcome to The Cambridge Show. Our programme today is from Cambridge Judo Club. Every day thirty or forty students come and do judo here. It's a great way to keep fit and healthy. Look! Some students are practising now. There are some young girls, too. They are doing judo for the first time. Everyone is having fun. But judo is dangerous and we must be careful when we do this sport. I want to talk to Sue White about some safety rules for judo.

Sue Hello everyone. Well, judo is great fun for all ages from eight to eighty. But you must be careful and use some safety rules. You must wear the right clothes when you do judo. You mustn't start when your partner is not ready. And don't practise after you eat. It's unhealthy and you feel sick.
