

Garry Kasparov played his first game of chess at the age of six and won his first international tournament before he was 18. He

<sup>1</sup>is holding / holds the record for being number one in the world of chess for the most years, and many <sup>2</sup>are viewing / view him as the best chess player of all time. Now middle-aged, he <sup>3</sup>is still playing / has still played chess with great success. He <sup>4</sup>is recently playing / has recently played against 30 chess players at the same time, winning all the games. He <sup>5</sup>writes / has written several books on chess.

Oprah Winfrey <sup>6</sup>does / has done many things over the years, including acting, hosting her own TV show, and running a company. She <sup>7</sup>is even running / has even run a marathon in under four and a half hours. Her childhood was difficult at times, but her experience <sup>8</sup>shows / is showing that difficulties can be overcome. The world is changing, and the number of women at the top of their profession

<sup>9</sup>increases / is increasing. Many people say that Oprah <sup>10</sup>has helped / helps motivate many of these high-achieving women over the years.

