Read 1•48

The Four

There are four seasons in a year: spring, summer, fall, and winter. Each season is special.

Spring

Flowers and plants grow in spring.

Summer

Summer days are long and hot.

[ ] is a growing season. It gets [ ] outside. It [ ] a lot. The rain helps plants grow. Buds grow on trees and plants. [ ] make [ ] in trees.

[ ] comes after spring. It gets [ ] outside. The days are [ ] and the nights are [ ]. The sun helps the buds grow into fruit and [ ]. Animals eat the fruit.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Seasons

Fall leaves are beautiful colors.

Winter days are short and cold.

[ ] comes after summer. It gets [ ] outside. Leaves turn [ ], [ ], and [ ]. Then they fall to the ground. Animals collect food for the winter.

[ ] comes after fall. The days are short and the nights are long. It gets [ ] outside and it [ ]. The snow covers the ground. Lots of [ ] don't have leaves now. The [ ] eat the food they collect in the fall.

Then it's spring, and the seasons begin again.

LIVEWORKSHEETS