James's Summer Adventure

James had always lived in the city, surrounded by tall buildings, busy roads, and bright lights. He had never spent much time in the countryside, but this summer, his parents decided to send him to his uncle's farm in a small village.

At first, James didn't like it. The village was too quiet, and there was no internet. He missed playing video games and chatting with his friends. However, after a few days, he started to see the beauty of nature. The air was fresh, the fields were green, and the river nearby was perfect for swimming.

One day, his uncle asked him to help take care of the animals. James fed the chickens, collected eggs, and even helped milk a cow. He learned that farm life was much harder than he had thought.

One evening, James and his cousins decided to explore the nearby forest. They walked for hours, picking wild berries and enjoying the sounds of birds. Suddenly, they realized that they had walked too far and didn't know how to get back. James remembered what his uncle had told him: «If you ever get lost, follow the river. It will lead you home.» Following this advice, they found their way back just before it got dark.

By the end of the summer, James didn't want to leave. He had made new friends, learned new skills, and discovered that he actually enjoyed life outside the city. He promised his uncle he would return next year.

A. Why was James unhappy at the beginning of his trip?

1. He didn't like his uncle.
2. He was afraid of animals.
3. He didn't like the food.
4. He missed his city life.

B. What changed his first attitude to country life?

1. He found how to connect to the Internet.
2. He looked at the nature differently.
3. He liked swimming in the river.
4. He invited his friends from the city.

C. What did James learn about farm life?

1. It was easy and fun.
2. It was more difficult than he expected.
3. It was too boring for him.
4. It was the same as city life.

D. How did James and his cousins find their way home?

1. They followed the river.
2. They followed a map.
3. They used a flashlight.
4. They asked a farmer for directions.

E. What was James's decision at the end of the story?

1. To stay at the farm forever.
2. To bring his friends next time.
3. To visit his uncle again next year.
4. To live in the forest.

Hi!
How are you? Last week, I started a new hobby – photography! I love taking pictures of nature and animals. What do you usually do in your free time? How often do you do it? Who do you do it with?
Hope to hear from you soon!
Lisa

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on the right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface. The overall appearance is that of a clean, unused piece of stationery or notebook paper.
