

SHOULD & SHOULDN'T

Read the advice about living abroad. Change the verbs in blue by adding should or shouldn't.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO LIVE ABROAD?
TAKE OUR ADVICE!

- 1 Don't stay at home all the time.
Go out and meet people.
You shouldn't stay at home all the time. You should ...
- 2 Try to visit a new place every weekend.
Don't wait until the last few weeks of your stay.
- 3 Read about the country before you go there.
- 4 Don't get angry when things go wrong.
- 5 Remember that things work differently in other countries.

1. You shouldn't stay at home all the time. You should go out and meet people.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Put the words in the correct order to make questions.

1 money / much / take / should / I / how ?

How much money should I take?

2 museum / we / go / a / should / to ?

3 clothes / should / what / wear / I ?

4 I / later / come / should / back ?

5 we / local / the / should / eat / food ?

6 we / should / time / arrive / what ?

7 we / where / stay / should ?

8 for / should / ask / who / we / advice ?

Read the conversation and find six mistakes with should.

- A I'm going to Thailand next month. Have you ever been there?
- B Yes, I have.
- A Where should I staying?
- B You should look for a hotel when you arrive. You don't should book before you go.
- A Really? I should go to Bangkok?
- B You should to go to Bangkok for a few days, but you shouldn't stay long. You should visit an island.
- A What do I should do on an island?
- B Do you want to relax?
- A Yes.
- B You should go swimming every day. You should eat at restaurants on the beach. And you should leave your mobile phone at home!
- A Should I take anything with me?
- B Just some money. You should not to worry about money on holiday!

Correct the mistakes:

1. Where should I stay?

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____