Matching: Pair the Terms with Their Definitions

Cinematographer	- A series of film festivals where independent and international films are screened and judged.
Screenwriter	-The person responsible for the financial and logistical aspects of a film, including securing funding and managing the production process.
Producer	-The person responsible for selecting and hiring actors for the film.
Casting Director	-Films produced outside major studio systems, often with lower budgets and more creative freedom.
Independent Cinema	-A film movement characterized by realistic, everyday stories, often focusing on working-class characters and using non-professional actors.
Festival Circuit	-The person who writes the script, including dialogue, scenes, and story structure.
Film Grant	-A sum of money given to filmmakers to help finance their projects, often provided by governments or cultural organizations.
Neorealism	-The person in charge of the camera and lighting, responsible for the visual style and composition of a film.

LIVEWORKSHEETS